

INSTRUCTIONS ON FILING A MOTION FOR CONTEMPT

Contempt of court is a ruling by the judge that a person is intentionally failing to follow a judge's order. A person who is cited for contempt may be punished by a fine or a jail sentence until he or she obeys the court order. In many cases, the person who disobeyed the court order will be required to pay the petitioner's costs and attorney's fees.

You may use this form if any of the following is true:

- You have not received child support as ordered; or
- You have not been allowed to visit with your children as ordered; or
- The other party has not turned over property as ordered; or
- The other party has not performed other acts as ordered.

STEPS:

1. Complete the Motion for Contempt form.
2. Complete the Verification form and have it notarized.
3. Attach a certified copy of your Court order to the Motion.
4. The Motion must be EFiled. You can come into the Clerks office to use an EFile hub provided at no additional cost.

PAYING THE FILING FEE:

If the contempt is on Non-Payment of Child Support, Alimony or Medical expenses, the filing fee is waived. If the contempt is on any other item, the filing fee is $58.00, payable in Cash, Check or Credit Card (Credit Cards will have an additional convenience fee). If you have a very low income and feel that you cannot afford to pay these fees, you can ask the Court to waive the fees. To do this, you should file an Affidavit of Poverty with your paperwork when you file your Contempt action at the Clerk's office. The judge assigned to your case must approve and sign an Order on Affidavit of poverty, before the case can continue. If the judge signs the order of approval, both the filing and service fees are waived. If the judge does not approve your Affidavit of Poverty you must pay the fees before your case will proceed.

ARRANGING SERVICE:

You must serve the opposing party in one of the following ways:

1. If the opposing party will sign an Acknowledgment of Service form - You must provide the opposing party with a copy of the Petition and have him/her sign an Acknowledgment of Service form. He/she must do so before a notary. By signing this form, the opposing party is letting the court know that he/she has received a copy of the petition and therefore will not need to be served with a copy of the Petition by the Sheriff. You will then file the Acknowledgment of Service with the original Petition in the Clerk's office.
2. If the opposing party will not sign an Acknowledgment of Service form and he/she lives in the county where the Petition has been filed- You will need the Sheriff of that county to serve the opposing party with a copy of the Petition at his/her home. If you do not know the opposing party's home address or he/she is avoiding service at home, you can have the party served by the Sheriff at his/her work.
3. If the opposing party will not sign an Acknowledgment of Service form and he/she does not live in the county where the petition has been filed- You will need the Sheriff of the county in which the opposing party lives to serve the Petition. Contact the sheriff's department in that county to find out which forms and fees they require. File the original petition and summons with the Clerk's office and print a set of the filed documents to send for service.
